

EMPOWERING CHOICE... CREATING OPPORTUNITY

FULL-RIDE SCHOLARSHIP SUMMARY AND REQUIREMENTS

This scholarship is offered by CHOICE Education Foundation (the "Foundation"). It is a full-ride scholarship available to one incoming freshman at a publicly funded Colorado college or university, including community and technical colleges. This scholarship includes tuition, fees, and all required books for a maximum of four years. This is a "last resort" scholarship, meaning that CHOICE Scholarship funds cover only the eligible tuition and fees that remain after all other scholarships, financial aid, and grants, have been applied.

Purpose of the Scholarship

To provide financial aid to students with a demonstrated financial need, dedication to community service, and commitment to academic excellence.

Requirements and Details

1. Only Colorado residents may apply. A completed CHOICE Application Form must be submitted to the Foundation by mail or hand-delivery to 5350 S. Roslyn St., Suite 100, Greenwood Village, CO 80111. THE DEADLINE IS MARCH 13, 2015. The Foundation must RECEIVE your application by this deadline, so please consider potential delays if mailing your materials.
2. The Foundation will not consider any applications received after the deadline under any circumstances. Nor will it consider timely-submitted applications that are incomplete on their face or that fail to include all required supporting documents. If you are relying on counselors, advisors, or other people to gather materials and submit them on your behalf, it is your responsibility to ensure that all materials are complete and submitted by the deadline.
3. Finalists must attend an in-person interview and must assist us to arrange interviews with a student advisor, counselor and/or teacher, and with the finalist's parent(s) or guardian(s).
4. Once awarded, the scholarship recipient must:
 - a. Register for and complete a minimum of 12 credit hours per semester.
 - b. Maintain a cumulative GPA of at least 2.50.
 - c. Perform a minimum of 25 documented hours of community service each year of college.
 - d. Adhere to the Foundation's Code of Conduct (see attached).
 - e. Apply for, and continue to remain eligible to receive, financial aid each year of college by making satisfactory academic progress.
 - f. Apply all other scholarships, financial aid, and grants to tuition and fees each semester/quarter prior to receiving CHOICE Scholarship funds. Should the recipient qualify for other scholarships, grants, or financial awards after CHOICE Scholarship funds have already been applied to tuition and fees, the recipient must reimburse the Foundation with those newly-awarded funds.
5. Once awarded, the Foundation may revoke this scholarship should the recipient fail to satisfy one or more of the requirements mentioned above in paragraph 4. The Foundation further reserves the right to revoke this scholarship based on conduct unbecoming a scholarship recipient as determined by the Foundation in its sole discretion.
6. The scholarship is not transferrable. Once awarded and submitted to the Colorado college or university of the individual's choice, it cannot be transferred to another college or university without the prior written permission of the Foundation, in its sole discretion.
7. If the scholarship recipient withdraws from school, the balance of any scholarship funds already remitted to the college or university by the Foundation on the recipient's behalf must be immediately refunded and returned to the Foundation.

8. The Foundation will pay scholarship funds directly to the college/university each semester or quarter, as applicable.
9. These scholarship funds include payment for the recipient's room and board while living on-campus. The Foundation has no obligation to provide any funds to cover the recipient's rent, meals, or other costs of living should the recipient move to off-campus housing. Further, these scholarship funds do not apply to the costs of study abroad programs.
10. It is the Foundation's preference that our recipients refrain from working during their first year of college in order to focus on their studies and on meeting the GPA requirements of this scholarship program. If working appears to be a necessity, the recipient should (but is not required) discuss this need with a member of the Board of Directors prior to accepting a job.
11. The scholarship recipient must provide a photo for the Foundation's use in marketing and promoting the CHOICE scholarship through social media (CHOICE website, Facebook, Twitter, or other social media) and print media and materials. By accepting the scholarship, the recipient authorizes the Foundation to use his or her name and likeness in the Foundations' public marketing materials.
12. Once each semester, the recipient must provide the Foundation with a statement describing the impact the scholarship has had on the recipient's life and updating the Foundation on the recipient's college experience. This statement may be used by the Foundation to market the scholarship.
13. This scholarship applies to all remaining tuition and fees after application of grants and other scholarships received by the recipient.

CHOICE Education Foundation Scholarship Code of Conduct

Those selected to receive the CHOICE Scholarship are chosen in part based on their character and the utmost faith the CHOICE Board of Directors has decided to place in you to honor and protect the CHOICE name, brand, and reputation. This Code of Conduct establishes expected behavior of all CHOICE Scholarship Recipients ("Recipient(s)"). All Recipients are expected to uphold the CHOICE standards, which include abiding by federal, state, and local laws, and adhering to all policies and standards of conduct of the college or university you attend, and this Code of Conduct.

Recipients who violate these standards will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal from the CHOICE Education Foundation Scholarship program and revocation of the scholarship, in the Foundation's sole discretion. Recipients of the scholarship are responsible for their conduct from the time this scholarship is awarded, through graduation.

This Code of Conduct applies to any behavior of a Recipient, whether it occurs on or off campus. Any Recipient found to have committed, or to have attempted to commit, the following misconduct is subject to disciplinary sanctions:

1. Academic Misconduct
 - a. Plagiarism, including any representation of another's work or ideas as one's own in academic and educational submissions.
 - b. Cheating, including any actual or attempted use of resources not authorized by the instructor(s) for academic submissions.
 - c. Fabrication, including any falsification or creation of data, research or resources to support academic submissions.
2. Dishonesty
 - a. Intentionally giving false or misleading information to CHOICE or an official of the institution.
 - b. Any forgery, misuse, misrepresentation, or unauthorized alteration of any CHOICE materials. This includes, but is not limited to, the inclusion of false information on any forms or documents submitted to CHOICE.
3. Disorderly Conduct
 - a. Any act, display, or communication that is disruptive, lewd, or indecent or causes a disruption of the educational, administrative, residential or other aspect of the campus and/or learning environment of the attending institution.
4. Drug Misuse
 - a. Possession, use, manufacture, or distribution of any illegal drug, or any unlawful possession or misuse of any prescription drug or other controlled substance.
 - b. Any act which causes a person to ingest any illegal or prescription drug or other controlled substance without their effective consent.
5. Endangerment
 - a. Any act that directly or indirectly creates a substantial risk to anyone's health or safety (including one's own health or safety) regardless of intent.
6. Harassment
 - a. Any act, display or communication that causes substantial injury or distress or would cause a reasonable person to fear for their safety when it specifically targets any group or individual on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, religion, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, or veteran status.
 - b. Any act, display, or communication that causes substantial injury or distress or would cause a reasonable person to fear for their safety regardless of intent. This includes, but is not limited to, coercion, intimidation, or unwanted sexual advances.
 - c. Any attempt to repeatedly make contact with a person regardless of their stated objections, when that contact serves no legitimate purpose. This includes, but is not limited to, intentionally following another person or attempting to contact them through telephone, text messages, or any electronic social media.

7. Hazing
 - a. Any act, even if committed with the effective consent of all parties, which endangers the psychological or physical health or safety of a person, or by which a person is encouraged to engage in conduct that a reasonable person would consider to be humiliating, when the act is explicitly or implicitly a condition of admission into, affiliation with, or continued membership in any group. Actively or passively encouraging these acts is also prohibited.
8. Physical and Sexual Misconduct
 - a. Any act causing or likely to cause, bodily harm to any person, regardless of intent.
 - b. Any act resulting in physical contact with another person, when performed over their objections.
 - c. Any physical act that is sexual in nature and performed without the effective consent of all parties.
9. Property Damage and Theft
 - a. Any act causing or likely to cause, damage to property without the effective consent of the owner or person legally responsible for that property, regardless of intent. This includes, but is not limited to, acts of vandalism.
 - b. Attempted or actual acquisition or possession of property (including intellectual property) without the consent of the owner or person legally responsible for that property. This includes, but is not limited to, the possession of property a student should reasonably know to have been stolen.
10. Violation of the Law
 - a. Any violation or conviction of any federal or state law or local ordinance, or attempted violation of law.
11. Violation of Policies of the Attending Institution
 - a. Any act which violates any policies of the attending institution.

I certify that I have read the above CHOICE Education Foundation Scholarship Code of Conduct and, if selected as a scholarship recipient, agree to adhere to the Code of Conduct each academic year until I graduate.
